THE DOG.

Kicking in the morning.
Kicking all the day.
Kicking if he's busy.
Kicking at delay.

Thus the chronic kicker
Fills his life with woe,
Frowning, frowning, wringing,
Everywhere he goes.

Nothing ever suits him,
Always finding fault;
Bewary kind of pleasure
He is sure to halt.

Seeing at the children,
Growing at his wife's Turning peace and comfort
Into constant strife.

Kicking if the weather
Happens to be dry;
Kicking when the rain is Tumbling from the sky.

Kicking in the summer.
Heat has then no charm;
Kicking in the winter,
Then he'd have it warm.

Kicking every mealtime,
Glaring at the meat;
Often he is saying:
"Nothing to eat."

Kicking when he's reading,
Grumbling at the light;
Now and then denouncing
Everything in sight.

Kicking in the morning,
Kicking all the day;
Kicking in the evening,
Kicking should be pray.

Kicking while he's thinking,
Kicking when he's at Wonder he'll keep on Kicking when he's dead.

the congregation at Bethany Church at Springdale for Sunday school work. This makes the fourth year that this congregation has been blessed by the labors of this worthy man, and during all this time he has not disappointed his congregation a single time. Heat, cold, rain, nor snow can hinder him from being promptly at his post, and yet his physical constitution is weak. That he may be long spared to proclaim the glad tidings in his able and efficient manner and that he and his self-sacrificing wife may be able to help him in his store is the prayer of his many friends there.

Complying with the urgent request of the family of the young lady, The Lan-Chillicothe, on marriage bent. The groom is a member of the firm of Coughlin

Bro., and the bride a daughter of ex-Jailer and Mrs. John Johnson; and the newspaperman that does a favor by suppressing facts generally "gets it in the neck," as about every other paper within a hundred miles of Maysville published the item.

We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we rectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eye-ball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every ment for Eldridge Kenton of Mt. Olivet.

John I. Winter, "The Price Fighter," yesterday received seventeen New Home Sewing Machines, and we asked him what he was going to do with all of them. He laughingly replied, "Still there's more to follow," informing us that this was the first shipment of 85 bought last week direct from St. Louis at jobber's price, and that they would follow in lots of 17 each month until the entire 85 arrived. Mr. Winter informs us that he will retail these machines on the 10 per cent. plan, and that will bring them to exactly the wholesale price, so we advise the public to watch his advertisement, which will appear in a few days. We know the price and confidently state that it will be a knockout blow to all competition.

THE GEORGIA WAY.

The Same Disgraceful Condition Existed
Right Here in Maysville.

The recent election in Augusta, Ga., in which hundreds of Negro votes were openly purchased, and even auctioned on the streets at various sums ranging from $3 to $20, has aroused the entire state to the necessity of purer elections, and the crusade against such methods as were employed in Augusta has gained glorious proportions.

The most sensational feature of the crusade thus far was the charge of Judge Faulkner to the Chatham Grand Jury.

He treated the subject with grave earnestness. He said the highest privilege of an American citizen is the expression of his own wish by the ballot.

He believed that it was treasonable against every interest of the country for the franchise of voters to be purchasable.
Judge Faulkner declared there was no greater crime committed upon a community than for an American citizen to sell his vote for money. Then he paused to say that there was no greater crime than this, and declared it to be when an American citizen, in private life or in official station, uses money to corrupt the weak by buying the vote of the poor man, white or black, who may be in dire distress, and to relieve his suffering sells his ballot, for in this instance there is a consciousness of crime. The Judge said the Grand Jurors of Georgia must protect the state.

Everybody's husband appreciates shirts that fit. If you don't laundered white shirts, three-piece linen button-downs, improved

SPANISH CASINO

Refused to Tender Senor Canalejas a Banquet.

Opposition Due to the Fact That He is the Editor of El Heraldo de Madrid.

Which has Violently Attacked Gen. Weyler. He Will Address Spain to Abandon the Island—Gen. Segura Positively Refused to Receive Any Longer in Cuba.

HAVANA, via Key West, Jan. 6.—Senor Canalejas was cordially received at Santiago de Cuba. The Spanish cabinet refused to tender him a banquet and he was housed on the streets. It is understood that the opposition to him is due to the fact that he is the editor of El Heraldo de Madrid which has violently attacked Gen. Weyler, and that he will advise the Spanish government to abandon the island.

Wednesday Gen. Blanco, Gen. Parado and Gen. Pando called upon Gen. Segura at the Hotel Florida to try to induce him to remain in the island. He refused. He does not wish to be expelled, he declares, for the future development of the "disgraceful Spanish rule in Cuba."

Gen. Segura is an intelligent and honest fighter, and is wholly in sympathy with Gen. Pando's method of campaign. He says Pando spends more money in greeting visitors than in fighting insurgents, and that in his opinion Cuba is lost to Spain unless the government sends Gen. Pando, or the latter he considers out of the question, because Gen. Weyler was relieved of his command at the request of Washington.

Gen. Pando is a man of high esteem, believing that this offer could end the war if an extraordinary effort were adopted. Gen. Segura also believes war is inevitable between Spain and the United States and that the present war will be the final one.

The insurgents are carrying out the orders of Don Maximo Gomez not to allow grinding, and they set out to the case fields wherever possible from one end of the island to the other.

Gen. Pando sailed this morning by the steamer Panama, going eastward. He will probably go first to Nuevitas, province of Puerto Rico, and from there by steamer to Havana, thence proceeding to Santiago de Cuba. The insurgents recently made a strong attack upon Nuevitas, and the forces with loss on both sides. It is believed that this is the reason why Gen. Pando is going there.

The insurgent General Lucena is in sight of Bahia with 350 men. Troops have been sent to meet him. Senor Vassallo, governor of Puerto Rico, sent Senor Principes to the insurgent camp to induce the insurgents to accept autonomy and to get a permit to return away from the island. He was held by the insurgents, but fortunately met a former servant in the household, and they set out to the case fields, where he was saved from certain death.

Capt. Calabrese, chief of the guerrillas who captured the insurgent leader Villanueva, left Santiago de Cuba, and was soon after seized by the insurgents, who executed him and 15 others.

A MANIA

Black Amuse in 12 Men Shows More Than Two Men.

DEN MOYRE, Ia., Jan. 6.—An insane man named John Smith, who yesterday afternoon entered the shoe store of C. L. Kahler, stepped up to Frank L. Kahler, the son of the proprietor and deliberately shot him in the chest, from which he died in an hour. Stone then turned on Clifford Chiles, who took to his heels, and the third victim was Aris, one of the partners of the firm, who was shot through the left arm. Stone next ran toward the rear of the store, and while the man was trying to take him Smith jumped on his back and tried to disarm him. A desperate struggle ensued in which two shots were fired; neither of which did any damage. Smith succeeded in getting away, but also until the police came and took him away. Stone was undoubtedly insane at the time of the shooting. No other motive has been discovered.

THE OHIO HOUSE,

By a Unanimous Vote, Passes the Measure Repealing the Law for 50-Year Franchises for Street Railways.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 6.—The senatorial contest became more bitter Wednesday than ever. After the sensational developments Tuesday night in connection with the repeated changes of Representative Hanna, and other doubtful members, the skirmishing proceeded more clandestinely on both sides. No claims of victory were made on either side. It was the purpose of the managers in not holding any caucuses, to be able to keep their own secrets till the morning began a week hence. It is believed that secret compacts are being made that will not become known until the votes of members are recorded. The situation Wednesday was the same as after the caucuses of Saturday night and the organization of the legislature on Monday.

Wednesday Gen. Blanco, Gen. Parado and Gen. Pando called upon Gen. Segura at the Hotel Florida to try to induce him to remain in the island. He refused. He does not wish to be expelled, he declares, for the future development of the "disgraceful Spanish rule in Cuba."

UNDERSTANDING

In Regard to the Cession of Kiao-Chou Bay

To the Germans Reached Between the German and Chinese Governments.

It Takes the Form of a Lease for an Indefinite Term—Germany at Liberty to Erect on the Ceded Territory the Necessary Buildings, Etc.

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—The Reichstag Wednesday evening announced that, according to a telegram from Peking, an understanding has been reached between Germany and China regarding the cession of Kiao-Chou bay to the former. The arrangement, it is said, is substantially as follows:

It is intended in the cession to render possible for Germany the fulfillment of her just wish for the possession, in the same way as other powers, of a base for trade and navigation in Chinese waters.

The cession of Kiao-Chou bay to Germany takes the form of a lease for an indefinite term. Germany is at liberty to erect on the ceded territory all the necessary buildings and establishments, while the cession includes measures required for their protection.

Continuing, the Reichstag says the ceded territory comprises the whole of the inner basin of Kiao-Chou bay, so far as the high water line, the larger headlands situated south and north of the entrance of the bay, to the point where they are naturally bounded by mountain ranges, and the island situated within and in front of the bay. No obstacles are to be raised by China to any measures Germany deems necessary for the regulation of the bay's commerce.

Germany has transferred to Germany for a period not stated in the telegram, a lease of all sovereign rights over the ceded territory.

If for any cause Kiao-Chou Bay should prove unsuitable for the object for which it was ceded, Germany, arriving at an understanding with Germany, will cede another piece of territory on the coast which Germany may regard as more suitable for her purpose.
